Miss Me – But let me go.
(read by Ruth Hooper)

When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little – but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared –
miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we must all take,
and each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan –
a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know,
and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds;
miss me, but let me go.

Words of Comfort

Prayers

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory
for ever and ever. Amen.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free; I'm following a path God laid for me.
 I took His hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day To laugh, to love, to work or play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found a peace at close of day
 If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I've savoured much.
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Lift up your hearts and share with me
 God wanted me now, He set me free!

*Barbara and Graham, Hector and Hayley and families
